

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Romance Author Nicki Greenwood to Sign Copies of “Earth” at Books 4 Less on May 8th in Liverpool, NY

Local author hopes to promote awareness about the environment, while entertaining with a story of paranormal romance

Liverpool, NY (March 15, 2010) – Local paranormal romance author Nicki Greenwood will sign her debut novel, “Earth,” at Books 4 Less, 7421 Oswego Rd. # 5, Liverpool, NY on May 8, 2010 from 12:00-4:00 PM.

“Earth” tells the love story between Kincade Murphy, a Montana rancher whose paranormal gift has mysteriously vanished, and Allyson Hamilton, a plant biologist who won’t stop until she discovers the truth about him. When Allyson uncovers a plot to force Kincade off his land, the reticent cowboy must risk it all—including her discovery of his gift—to protect her.

Nicki believes good writing gets people involved as much as it entertains. Her first novel is flavored with her concern for green living. She tries to implement that philosophy in her personal life. “I’m still learning, myself, but I love romance and the environment, so this book was a natural combination of those things,” said Nicki.

The event is free and open to the public. Nicki will offer promotional giveaways with an eye toward organic living. For more information contact Books 4 Less at (315) 457-0030.

About Nicki Greenwood

Nicki Greenwood graduated SUNY Morrisville with a degree in Natural Resources. She found her passion in writing stories of romantic adventure, and combines that with her love of the environment. Her works have won several awards, including the Rebecca Eddy Memorial Contest. Her first book, “Earth,” is on sale April 2 in print and eBook through The Wild Rose Press. For more information on her books or upcoming events, visit Nicki’s website at <http://www.nickigreenwood.com>.

Contact:

Nicki Greenwood
<http://www.nickigreenwood.com>
nicki@nickigreenwood.com

####